

Belongs With You

Munn

Did you ever even love me?
Is there anyone else? Did you feel what I felt?
Was I not enough holy?
To fix imperfections that you been neglecting
Said not to worry
As if taping ourselves for a couple of months
Would save me from hurting
You know what you're doing

'Cause as we speak, you're letting go
You're already dreaming of a guy to bring home
But you said it'd be me and now I'm crying alone
The person I am can't be the person you know

'Cause I would've loved you harder than anyone else
I've always put your happiness before myself
You still have my heart
I'll get it back but not this part
It belongs with you

Now I'm wondering if only
I was someone you adore, worth a little more
Than a fix to your lonely
What we coulda been, the spiral begins
While I'm drowning slowly
You're playing a part like you got it hard
But I know you're happy
'Cause you never wanted me

'Cause as we speak, you're letting go
You're already dreaming of a guy to bring home
But you said it'd be me and now I'm crying alone
The person I am can't be the person you know

'Cause I would've loved you harder than anyone else
I've always put your happiness before myself
You still have my heart
I'll get it back but not this part
It belongs with you

So don't waste it
More than the rest you've taken
It belongs with you
Please don't break this
Piece of me that's staying

'Cause I would've loved you harder than anyone else
I've always put your happiness before myself
You still have my heart
I'll get it back but not this part
It belongs with you
