

Final Part

Munn

I do my best to keep our space
But I feel like we've been getting closer
You try to act like it's okay
But I know you keep me here for comfort
That's why, that's why

You only call me when I'm lonely
Cause you know that I'll give in
Lately I've been catching on to
The secrets you're hiding
You can try to cover up
But it won't get you too far
Almost had you from the start
Answer this final part
Who do you think that you are?

Who, who, who, who
Who do you think that you are?
Who, who, who, who
Who do you think that you are?
That you are, are, are
Who do you think that you are?
Who, who, who, who
Who do you think that you are?

I'm Just a player in your game
I'm clueless how I let you get me here
And when we're alone and you say my name
All of those red flags disappear
That's why, that's why

You only call me when I'm lonely
Cause you know that I'll give in
Lately I've been catching on to
The secrets you're hiding
You can try to cover up
But it won't get you too far
Almost had you from the start
