

gone by the morning

Munn

Love me now but be gone by the morning
Waking up with strangers in my bed has never been for me
And I know you didn't ask but I'm sorry
Love me now but be gone by the morning

Please don't, please don't
Ask any questions
'Cause we both know
You'll be gone in a second
It shouldn't be you and I
It shouldn't be you tonight

Love me now, I'll be gone by the morning
I could list the reasons why, but they're not important (they're not important)

Please don't, please don't
Ask any questions
'Cause we both know
You'll be gone in a second
It shouldn't be you and I
It shouldn't be you tonight
It shouldn't be you and I
It shouldn't be you tonight
It shouldn't be you

Please don't, please don't
Ask any questions (ask any questions, no)
'Cause we both know
You'll be gone in a second (you'll be gone in a second)
Love me now but be gone by the morning
