

Hellish Path

Munn

We live, love, laugh and cry while
Their hearts are pasteurized they're
Not raw like yours and mine
These hollow men make hollow friends
We give hope, protect and provide While they
Cheat, steal, stab, your back and lie

Oh no, the devil's falling
Oh no, but they still follow him

Down down the hellish path where
Weak men go to pass
They trade their souls
Give their lives
So heed my warning my friend
Don't follow 'em
Down down the hellish path where
Weak men go to pass
They take your soul
Control your life
So heed my warning my friend
Don't follow 'em

Down
Don't follow 'em down
Down
Don't follow 'em
No don't follow 'em

Easier said than done I've
Been where you're coming from
They promise the life you want
Then keep your neck under their thumb
All while they spin the truth until Evil makes sense to you

Oh no, the devil's falling
Oh no, but they still follow him

Down down the hellish path where
Weak men go to pass
They trade their souls
Give their lives
So heed my warning my friend
Don't follow 'em
Down down the hellish path where
Weak men go to pass
They take your soul
Control your life
So heed my warning my friend
Don't follow 'em

Down
Down
Don't follow 'em

No don't follow 'em

Down, do not follow
The life they sell is hollow
While the life we live is borrowed
Don't give them your tomorrow
Rise up, to the liars
The ones who set the fire
To turn us on our brothers
In hopes to take another

Down down the hellish path where
Weak men go to pass
Give their lives
So heed my warning my friend
Don't follow 'em
Down down the hellish path where
Weak men go to pass
They take your soul
Control your life
So heed my warning my friend
Don't follow 'em

Down
Down
Don't follow 'em
