In Limbo

Munn

You're careless
And if you really cared, you'd care less
About what I think of you undressed
It's all for you to feel better about yourself
Selfish
If you had friends, they'd say it
You take our time and waste it
It's all for you to give your pain to someone else

Said you'll tattoo my name, have my kids and a house
Think of me always but don't come around
Your words can't mean less than they do to me now
Don't say you love me 'cause how
How could that ever make sense
When I feel all you want is the end?
Don't say that you want me
Then lie to me over, and over, and over again

I'm six feet deep in limbo
I've come the lowest that I've ever been for you

You're thoughtless
Nothing you do makes sense
But I would never say it
It's all for you to feel better about yourself
Anxious
Not knowing it's dangerous
Is my mind fun to play with?
It's all for you to give your pain to someone else

Said you'll tattoo my name, have my kids and a house
Think of me always but don't come around
Your words can't mean less than they do to me now
Don't say you love me 'cause how
How could that ever make sense
When I feel all you want is the end?
Don't say that you want me
Then lie to me over, and over, and over again

I'm six feet deep in limbo
I've come the lowest that I've ever been for you

It's torture (But it's all for you)
And my head hurts (But it's all for you)
Never been worse (Still, it's all for you)

So, don't say you love me 'cause how
How could that ever make sense
When I feel all you want is the end?
Don't say that you want me
Then lie to me over, and over, and over again

I'm six feet deep in limbo
I've come the lowest that I've ever been for you

It's all for you
