

Just Let Go

Munn

(Just let go)
Curiosity has got a hold of you now
You're asking all these questions
Thinking I won't find out

I'm so tired of this
We play back and forth like it's just a game now
And playing has got me sick
I'm just searching for a way I can get out

So can you, can you just let go
We had our time, but we let it get out of control
So can you, can you just let go
It's not that I blame you, but we both need to grow up

Insecurities has got a hold of you now
You're making up these stories
You just wanna bring me down

I'm so tired of this
You call my phone at 2 am like it's all good
And hearing you's got me sick
Need to keep to yourself, yeah we both should

So can you, can you just let go
We had our time, but we let it get out of control
So can you, can you just let go
It's not that I blame you, but we both need to grow up
(But we both need to grow up)

So can you, can you just let go
It's not that I blame you, but we both need to grow up
So can you, can you just let go
It's not that I blame you, but we both need to grow up
