

Learned From You

Munn

Are you alone?
Have you checked your phone?
I'd call you but you don't care enough
To fix the heart you broke

I can already hear it
You'd blame me for your mistakes
I'd call you
But you don't care enough to fix
The heart you broke

You're gonna
You're gonna
You're gonna gonna break me down
I'm usually strong but
I'm gonna
I'm gonna
I'm gonna just be weak right now

I'm kissing other people
Just to mess with you
I hope it hurts because it hurts me too
Sorry not sorry for what I put you through
You should've seen it coming
Because I learned from you

Losing my composure
'Cause getting under girls won't get you closure
I thought that
You would care enough to fix the heart you broke

If you got something to say
Then just come over
We don't even have to talk to get some closure
You would but you don't care enough
To fix the heart you broke

You're gonna
You're gonna
You're gonna gonna break me down
I'm usually strong but
I'm gonna
I'm gonna
I'm gonna just be weak right now

Kissing other people
Just to mess with you
I hope it hurts because it hurts me too
Sorry not sorry for what I put you through
You should've seen it coming
Because I learned from you

Kissing other people

Because I learned from you
