

It's better that you left
This hole inside my chest
I'm getting used to it
Forgive, but can't forget
I remember what you said
I wasn't really what you meant
All of this because I wasn't convenient for you then
So, Please don't change your mind, no

I'm still picking up the pieces that you left me in, that you left me in
I've been building back the walls that you caved in, when you left me in
Pieces, Pieces, Pieces that you left me in
I'm still picking up the pieces that you left me in, that you left me in

You want but I got needs
Love has no guarantee
So, Please don't change your mind

I'm still picking up the pieces that you left me in, that you left me in
I've been building back the walls that you caved in, when you left me in
Pieces, Pieces, Pieces that you left me in
I'm still picking up the pieces that you left me in, that you left me in

Piece by piece by piece by piece
Please don't take what's left of me
Piece by piece by piece by piece
Please don't take what's left of me

I'm still picking up the pieces that you left me in, that you left me in
I've been building back the walls that you caved in, when you left me in
Pieces, Pieces, Pieces that you left me in
(Piece by piece by piece by piece)
(Building back the walls that you caved in)
I'm still picking up the pieces that you left me in, that you left me in
