

somewhere in the middle

Munn

I wanna be the one you love
Oh, I am scared of me without you
'Cause I know what I will become
A man with everything in life
But he hates his own 'cause he lost his reason why

I'm living for you
Oh, I am scared of me without you
'Cause I know what I will become
Can we hold on for a little?
While I waste away somewhere in the middle
Darling, wait for the dust to settle
While I waste away somewhere in the middle

Mmm

Mmm

Mmm

I've been caught between the truth and the lie
I hang myself in the balance and never pick a side
Believe me, love, I know what's right
But all that's left for me to cling to is the shadow to you light

I'm living for you
Oh, I am scared of me without you
'Cause I know what I will become
Can we hold on for a little?
While I waste away somewhere in the middle
Darling, wait for the dust to settle
While I waste away somewhere in the middle

Darling, wait for the dust to settle
While I waste away somewhere in the middle
