

the reason i hate home

Munn

You're the reason I hate home
You're the reason I hate home

I still don't how to reconcile what you did, and it kills me now
Just to watch you walk around so innocent, you're a criminal
God, help me if you ever came running back
'Cause too much on me still lives in hopes to rebuild what we had

You're the reason I found
Hope in times when I was at my low
But you left me here with
Nothing but me, myself and your ghost
You're the reason I hate home

And I can't be here now
You haunt these streets, and you ruined this town
You're the reason I hate home

Is that all it took for you to hearest me? A month in time
And I gave you everything for three years of mine, you're on me
And now I have no choice but to go, 'cause it hurts too much
To see your world in flames I once called home

You're the reason I found
Hope in times when I was at my low
But you left me here with
Nothing but me, myself and your ghost
You're the reason I hate home

And I can't be here now
You haunt these streets, and you ruined this town
You're the reason I hate home

I hate home
You're the reason I hate home

And I can't be here now
You haunt these streets, and you ruined this town
You're the reason I hate home
