

Believe

Murder by Death

If I asked you to stay, would you stay?
If I wanted to leave, could I leave?
Neglected the care that should've been taken
I was bent to the point of breaking
Now I don't know what to believe

I wanna believe there's some good in everyone
I wanna believe there's a chance for redemption
I wanna believe in some resolution at all
Some kind of balance, some cost

Trying to run before I could walk
Lost in my own thoughts
Rigid as a tree, but I needed to be the leaf to be free
Won't be pinned down again

I wanna believe there's some good in everyone
I wanna believe there's a chance for redemption
I wanna believe in some resolution at all
Some kind of balance, some cost for what we've done

Why must you say it through your teeth?
What does I cost you to believe?
I want to believe
I want to believe
I want to believe
