

Joy

Murs

Yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah
I opened up my window and then
I opened up my mind and let imagination in Sun shrouded, sky clouded
You say it might rain today, I doubt it
Tony, Tony, Tony told me different
Southern California, you should really come and visit
Living out here, traffic is a given
On the 110, been thirty minutes sittin'
I used to smoke an ultra light American spirit
With the Ghostface turned up loud so you could hear it
I studied under [?]
And when knight met Harrison Ford he introduced me
Rap Han Solo, deuces in the photo
When I'm out at Phoenix catch me eating up at Lolo's
[?] on ice, biggest Kool-Aid [?] you ever seen in your life

You can see it on my face
It's the only thing I chase
You should come and get a taste
Joy, joy, joy rewards faith

You can see it on my face
It's the only thing I chase
You should come and get a taste
Joy, joy, joy rewards faith

I hit the beach, some say it's a spirit
Either way you can't deny when you hear it
You can hear it in the [?]
Feel the ocean breeze on your neck, divine breath
Sand on my feet, sunset in my eyes
One of them days it feels great to be alive
I survive, with scars from all wars
Many a day I came to cry at these shores
From her I never hide, the saltwater in my eyes
I bathe in her beauty as the tide starts to rise
Swimming puts everything in slow-mo
Probably how I [?] my dad body in the photos
It's been a while since my favorite shirt fit
But I can still make love to my wife so that's perfect
[?] I would never leave her
But I don't depend on her for my happiness either

You can see it on my face
It's the only thing I chase
You should come and get a taste
Joy, joy, joy rewards faith

You can see it on my face
It's the only thing I chase
You should come and get a taste
Joy, joy, joy rewards faith
