

Liftoff

Murs

You rockin' with the world's freshest in the gulf
Love and Rockets
We feel it when we lock eyes with that person across the room
When we get their number, when we have that first conversation – you know, a three-hour conversation? "No, you been good!" "No, you been good!"
It's an excitement, it's something new Or maybe somebody don't wanna be on that rocket shit no more
Maybe they want this bitch to come lay down Or maybe it just runs outta gas and plummets to the ocean like it always does
But it's an exciting journey...
