

The Hulk

Murs

The beat changed me into a beast
I started knockin' out teeth so other rappers can't eat
I'm from the streets, not the sidewalk, they listen when I talk
Another rapper dead and they sayin' that it's my fault
I have no recollection of the vivid vivisection
I will not be blamed for you niggas' imperfections
My locks are antennas, mixing Predator with Venom
I murder 'em to the rhythm, you got a crew, then send 'em
I'm two decades deep, you niggas should've stayed sleep
Since the late 90s I been spittin' with the same heat
The same clip and the same .45
If you niggas get out of line, then you must be ready to die
I'm polished like Mister Wallace, kick knowledge when I demolish
And leaving these niggas' voices like the electoral college
Quit playin', you know it ain't about numbers
This game ain't seen no brothers like Murs and 9th Wonder

I don't mix my Henny with Coke
I call it the Incredible Hulk (Say what?)
I don't mix my Henny with Coke
I call it the Incredible Hulk (Say what?)
I call it the Incredible Hulk (Say what?)
I call it the Incredible Hulk (Say what?)
I don't mix my Henny with Coke
I call it the Incredible Hulk (Say what?)

Bruce Banner gamma ray shit when I spray, bitch
Don't know what to say, that's every day, I'm from LA, trick
And don't play stupid, 'cause we showed you where the dots go
And ain't another city that's fuckin' with our tacos
Pride over simple shit, we ride over little shit
Catch an enemy slippin', we rollin' down the window quick
Blood, cuz, holmes, niggas get they thug on Baddest bitch you ever seen with a mean mug on
Come on, it's a state of mind, I'm major, shine
Sunbeams, you need sunscreen when I say these rhymes
Uh, not wearing Ray Bans or spray tans
And never going mental like that presidential satan
Say, man, hand claps for the emphasis
For the city with women as pretty as Disney princesses
Niggas is just as infamous, serving suckers with sentences
Y'all is just my apprentices, that's how I know I'm meant for this

I don't mix my Henny with Coke
I call it the Incredible Hulk (Say what?)
I don't mix my Henny with Coke
I call it the Incredible Hulk (Say what?)
I call it the Incredible Hulk (Say what?)
I call it the Incredible Hulk (Say what?)
I don't mix my Henny with Coke
I call it the Incredible Hulk (Say what?)

Say what?
Say what?
Say what?
Say what?
Say what?
