

Her name was vikki, adult actress
50 million scenes, true queen of the mattress
Met her by the way of my man van styles
It wasn't trippin id been hittin porn stars for a while
Met up at her crib
We watched a little tv
Didn't fuck the first night it wouldve been too easy
She was kinda cool
Exception to the rule
She really liked sex so she used it as a tool
To get a little money so she could pay for her school
Plus a house in the hills with a hell of a pool
No drug problems, no issues with her daddy
I hate to admit it but this chick kinda had me
I was addicted, to this chick that fucked a gang of dudes and hadnt even tou ched my dick yet
How could I? I swore never would I
Fall in love with this type of chick but I put my heart over brain and she d rove me insane
She became the source of so much pain but so much joy I mean a sex oh boy
And when we finally did fuck I found a brand new toy
I havent had sex again like that till this day
But needless to say I got a little bit possessive
And now I'm stuck asking all these fucked up questions
Why I didn't know she was a hoe from the?
Why she ain't here when her ass should've been home?
Why she have to lie call me from a friends phone?
Why she in the club why she looking at him for?
Why couldn't I just hit it? It should have been simple.
Why I have to be the one to fall in love with a nympho?
Gorgeous as hell, Victoria Veil,
She would meet out on tour and take me to the hotel
No telling how mnay other dudes she had
All I knew is that I wanted her and wanted her bad
I locked her down and made her commit to me
Told her that her job didn't really mean shit to me
Fuck for the cameras and then come home and fuck me
She said the only difference was that she really loved me
With me it was love, with them it was work
But no matter how she put it man that shit still hurts
I shook it off and we continued to date
No matter where we went she would seem outta place
Talking with her mini skirt, got her ass out
Old man looking gettin slapped in the mouth
House wives trippin cause on the low there jealous
Don't let her ask to come amd kick it with the fellas
My best friend asked if he could feel up on her ass
Pulled out a dvd and asked for her autograph
So then I sat her down and I said baby that's it
If you say you really love me then your gonna have to quit
She said I'm the same girl I was when you met me
And if you can't love me then you should just forget me
She broke my heart and now I'm making it public
Never let your dick pick who you fall in love with
