

Borrowing a Broken Heart

Muscadine Bloodline

I'm just the muse, maybe I'm OK with it
Situations out of my hands
If it don't belong to me is it really worth saving then?
Most folks won't ever understand

She don't love me and she probably never will
Cuz of how he left her hanging in the dark
She won't ever be mine
Am I wasting my time, just borrowing a broken heart

Morning comes and off she goes
In another one of my favorite shirts
The game we play I keep on giving in
Why the hell am I hanging on to this holding on to you
I hate it's worth just seeing you again

She don't love me and she probably never will
She won't ever be mine
Am I wasting my time just borrowing a broken heart

Well I hope it's me but if it's somebody else
You know I'll be wishing you well
She don't love me and she probably never will
She won't ever be mine
Am I wasting my time just borrowing a broken heart
