

Yeah the night was off to a rocky start
When we walked in this bar
And I had no idea it was gonna go this far
One turned to two turn to few too many
It was then when her ex walked in
If you have one more jack on the rocks I promise
I'm leaving here with him

Well its hard to see her hop up in that chevy
Guess she went ahead and cast the first stone
Left my heart covered in dust
As she kicking up gettin' gone
Not a tear in her eye when she said "goodbye"
With a the one thing away form a shotgun saddle
Slinging gravel

Oh I woke up with a poundin' head
To her poundin' my door
She didn't care she was draggin' that suitcase
Scrathin' up my floor
I could see him out there in that same Silverado
It was sittin' high in my driveway
She said "he's out there waitin'
So you better get to beggin' if you want me to stay"

Yeah well its hard to see her hop up in that chevy
Guess she went ahead and cast the first stone
Left my heart covered in dust
As she kicking up gettin' gone
Not a tear in her eye when she said "goodbye"
With a the one thing away form a shotgun saddle
Slinging gravel

Yeah well its hard to see her hop up in that chevy
Guess she went ahead and cast the first stone
Left my heart covered in dust
As she kicking up gettin' gone
Oh yeah
Well its hard to see her hop up in that chevy
Guess she went ahead and cast the first stone
Left my heart covered in dust
As she kicking up gettin' gone
Not a tear in her eye when she said "goodbye"
With a the one thing away form a shotgun saddle
Slinging Gravel
Yeah slinging gravel
