

Here Goes Nothing

Muscadine Bloodline

I've been waiting all day to get you all to myself
I've been waiting to say this, God, won't you lend me some help
'Cause sayin' it for the first time is a line that you can't ta ke back
And it changes everything

So here goes nothing except every single little second
I've been certain you're that certain someone
Here goes nothing to lose but you and me together forever
'Cause you're the one I want
Here goes nothing, nobody's gonna be givin' what I'm givin'
'Cause I'm givin' you everything that's mine
Here goes nothing but somethin' 'bout tellin' someone you been lovin'
That you love 'em for the very first time

I can feel it right there, it's on the tip of my tongue
Been hangin' right where it's been for the last couple months
I've been tryin' to find a time that's right
But it turns out there ain't no better time than right now

So here goes nothing except every single little second
I've been certain you're that certain someone
Here goes nothing to lose but you and me together forever
'Cause you're the one I want
Here goes nothing, nobody's gonna be givin' what I'm givin'
'Cause I'm givin' you everything that's mine
Here goes nothing but somethin' 'bout tellin' someone you been
lovin'
That you love 'em for the very first time
Very first time

I don't wanna know a world that doesn't have a day without you
Feels good to know you're thinkin' the same thing too

Thinkin' here goes nothing except every single little second
I've been certain you're that certain someone
Here goes nothing to lose but you and me together forever
'Cause you're the one I want
Here goes nothing, nobody's gonna be givin' what I'm givin'
'Cause I'm givin' you everything that's mine
Here goes nothing but somethin' 'bout tellin' someone you been
lovin'
That you love 'em for the very first time
Here goes nothing but somethin' 'bout tellin' someone you been
lovin'
That you love 'em for the very first time

Very first time
