

A Requiem for Tomorrow

Mushroomhead

Agnus Dei qui tollis
Peccata mundi
Dona eis requiem
Dona eis requiem

Entwined in blind naivety
Your minds confined by deities
Accelerate demise in motion
Devastate all that you've known

Decay, a requiem for tomorrow
Forever yesterday
Self imposed denial

Entwined in blind naivety
Your minds confined by deities
Accelerate demise in motion
Devastate all that you've known

Compromised, castrated
Shell of a broken dream
Build it up, tear it down
Wipe the slate clean

Disdain, dismantle, deconstruct
The weak are born detained
Deceit was born of trust

Entwined in blind naivety
Your minds confined by deities
Accelerate demise in motion
Devastate all that you've known

Heard but never seen
Hope but never dream

We're falling far away
(We're falling far away)
I'm not the enemy, it's not the end of me
Complete your fall from grace
(Complete your fall from grace)
There's something left for us today

Beneath the beaten heart
Behind the broken mind
Moments unrelenting
Find you circumventing time

Time slips away, cast away sanity
Can no longer hide your

Decay, a requiem for tomorrow
Forever yesterday
Self imposed denial

Entwined in blind naivety
Your minds confined by deities

Accelerate demise in motion

Heard but never seen

We're falling far away
(We're falling far away)
I'm not the enemy, it's not the end of me
(Complete your fall from grace)

We're falling far away
(We're falling far away)
I'm not the enemy, it's not the end of me
(Complete your fall from grace)
