

i remember you my ex

Musiq Soulchild

I remember one time
You pulled up on me said you wanna chill
What you was really after was a fix yeah
And I was your supplier

And that was kind of our routine
How we used to be was something like a dream
And I just been holding on to those memories
I can't lie

I think about calling
Sometimes when you're on my mind
Late on those lonely nights
Then

I remember you my ex
Yeah, that's right you my ex
Yeah, I remember you my ex
There's a reason why you my ex
So, don't forget you're still my ex

I would come to your crib
We'd be listening to R&B
The moment I look into your eyes
Put my hand on your thighs

Oou you make it hard to leave
All this reminiscing
Girl it got me all in my feelings
Could we just go back to
Before it all went wrong

I think about calling
Sometimes when you're on my mind
Late on those lonely nights

I remember you my ex
Yeah, that's right you my ex
Yeah, I remember you my ex
There's a reason why you my ex
So, don't forget you're still my ex

Yea, that's right you my ex
I ain't tryna get back naw
I'm thinking bout who next
Decline when you call
I ain't responding to your text
Ain't tryna read no paragraph
You probably should say less
I remember when I thought you was the one
I was giving everything and you was giving back none so
Yea we had a good run
But you for the streets now
When it's said and done
Wasn't there for me
Had to leave but I think

I think about calling
Sometimes when you're on my mind
Late on those lonely nights

I remember you my ex
Yeah, that's right you my ex
Yeah, I remember you my ex
There's a reason why you my ex
So, don't forget you're still my ex

I think about calling
Sometimes when you're on my mind
Late on those lonely nights

I remember you my ex
Yeah, that's right you my ex
Yeah, I remember you my ex
There's a reason why you my ex
So, don't forget you're still my ex
