

Separate

Mustafa

Sunlight lift me up
Tell me I'm enough
You know that they leave so soon
Just like you

But you always come back
And they never do
You know everyone I touch
Never makes it through
Will you make it through?

Oh, I'm too young to fade away
Oh, I'm too young to feel this pain
Oh, we're too young to separate
Separate

Now what am I to say
When you're beyond the grave
There's only so much words
To fill the silence in this place

Oh, I'm too young to fade away
Oh, I'm too young to feel this pain
Oh, we're too young to separate
Separate

And I try
And I try
And I try
Hundreds of days and hundreds of nights to cry
But I can't feel nothing in the night
In the night
