Borderline

Mustasch

Hey you, I'm borderline
If you leave me behind
I'll cut myself in half

I don't want to be all by myself

I need some serious help
Unstable sense of self
But confident as hell

I neither want to live or die, that's right

Darkness starts to rise
Can't see no end in sight
I'm borderline

This pitch black soul of mine
Have got no urge to fly
Bring back my amnesia

Leave me be but please don't by myself

A wink from laugh out loud
My life is breaking down
What the hell is going on?
I neither want to live or die

Darkness starts to rise
Can't see no end in sight
I'm borderline
