

Hound from Hell

Mustasch

Are you brave enough to put your life at risk in a dogfight
Now you better bow your head and say your prayers
I am Sirius, the Canis Major starlight
Now prepare to take you out with tooth and nail

Life's a bitch when you live in constant sorrow
And you know you are born to be a god
But my destiny is being a warrior
And I love to ride my pack of dogs

I will haunt you down like a Hound from Hell
A ragged beast that wishes all but well
When I haunt you like a rabid Hound from Hell
That's the way, cause I was born to be a slave

I stride the nights with fangs and shiny fur
If you turn me down you burn
I'm a beast and my work here has been done
Here I stand, just bring me fucking everyone

Life's a bitch when you live in constant sorrow
And you know you are born to be a god
But my destiny is being a warrior
And I love to ride my pack of dogs

I will haunt you down like a Hound from Hell
A ragged beast that wishes all but well
When I haunt you like a rabid Hound from Hell
That's the way, cause I was born to be a slave
