

Knuckleduster

Muzz

The apple awaited back when we had some truth
Back when your friends were still calling
I hesitated, was surprised to find you
Making all the same mistakes again

Like some alternate ending
The streets are on fire
Riot ascending high
Remembrance is born today
It won't be impossible
And the seas will prepare for us
When we need to remember falling
Something in the sky was safer
And all light led to you
Someday when we shine and tremble
And all that we made is new

Put the knives away
And the times will be on it
Be the sounds of the fountains flow
Quickly sleep in between the fires
I feel it, I feel it too
I feel this, I'm feeling you

Like some alternate ending
The streets are on fire
Riot ascending high
Remembrance is born today
It won't be impossible
And the seas will prepare floods
When we need to remember falling
Something in the sky was safer
And all light that leads to you
Remember when we shine we tremble
All that we made was new
