

I think of you
Whenever days are getting warmer
I miss you too
Just like the desert miss the water
I think of you
Right from the moment that I saw ya
I was gonna love you
Like the sun loves California

Swear it feels like only yesterday
It was only ever gon' be you and me
San Diego, California
Now you only have it in your memory

I think of you
Whenever days are getting warmer
I miss you too
Just like the desert miss the water
I think of you
Right from the moment that I saw ya
I was gonna love you
Like the sun loves California

I think of you
Whenever days are getting warmer
I miss you too
Just like the desert miss the water
I think of you
Right from the moment that I saw ya
I was gonna love you
Like the sun loves California

Cold coffee and no more cigarettes
Someone [?] we were coming to an end
July wind was blowing through your hair
And I know you were slowly slipping through my hands

I think of you
Whenever days are getting warmer
I miss you too
Just like the desert miss the water
I think of you
Right from the moment that I saw ya
I was gonna love you
Like the sun loves California

I think of you
Whenever days are getting warmer
I miss you too
Just like the desert miss the water
I think of you
Right from the moment that I saw ya
I was gonna love you
Like the sun loves California
