

make you mine

MÖWE

(Did we run out of orange juice again?)

Told you I was fine and you knew that I was lying
Looked you in your eyes and I knew I'd be alright
Used to hide my feelings but now it's time to find 'em
Yeah, I really like you and I wanna make you mine

Make you mine, yeah, I wanna make you mine
Make you mine, yeah, I wanna make you mine
Make you mine, yeah, yeah, I wanna make you mine
Yeah, yeah, yeah, I wanna make you mine

Make you mine, yeah

Aye, showed up at home with another black eye
Just turned 20 and I still can't drive
Feel like nobody is on my side
I don't understand how I'm still alive
And if it weren't for you
I would probably lose my mind
You made me smile, threw away my bad thoughts
You connected all the pieces I lost

Told you I was fine and you knew that I was lying
Looked you in your eyes and I knew I'd be alright
Used to hide my feelings, but now it's time to find 'em
Yeah, I really like you and I wanna make you mine

Make you mine, yeah, I wanna make you mine
Make you mine, yeah, I wanna make you mine
Make you mine, yeah, yeah, I wanna make you mine
Yeah, yeah, yeah, I wanna make you mine

Make you mine, yeah

I wanna wife you up, if I didn't, that'd be tragic
And every time we speak, I call you perfect, it's a habit
Girl, I could drive over in this '99 Caddy
And we could watch a show about a love that's everlasting
Never wanna waste your time
See you at the peak, all I gotta do is climb
And I don't wanna lose my mind, so
Yeah, I really like you and I wanna make you mine

Make you mine, yeah, I wanna make you mine
Make you mine, yeah, I wanna make you mine
Make you mine, yeah, yeah, I wanna make you mine
Yeah, yeah, yeah, I wanna make you mine

Make you mine, yeah
