

One Love

MÖWE

No one ever knows how the fire started
But whatever [?] are [?] to pay
We've been pointing fingers at each other
We about to crash if we don't change

'Cause love's [?] hate
One heart, one beat, one love
We are all the same

We've been fighting wars with each other
And now, it's time to take [?]
Can you feel the weight of your shoulders?
'Cause love's [?] hate
One heart, one beat, one love
We are all the same
One heart, one beat, one love

Love, love, love, love, love
One heart, one beat, one love
Love, love, love, love, love
One heart, one beat, one love
Love, love, love, love, love
One heart, one beat, one love
Love, love, love, love, love
One heart, one beat, one love

No one ever knows how the fire started
But whatever [?] are [?] to pay
We've been pointing fingers at each other
We about to crash if we don't change

'Cause love's [?] hate
One heart, one beat, one love
We are all the same

We've been fighting wars with each other
And now, it's time to take [?]
Can you feel the weight of your shoulders?
'Cause love's [?] hate
One heart, one beat, one love
We are all the same
One heart, one beat, one love

Love, love, love, love, love
One heart, one beat, one love
Love, love, love, love, love
One heart, one beat, one love
Love, love, love, love, love
One heart, one beat, one love
Love, love, love, love, love
One heart, one beat, one love
