

Skyline

MÖWE

Cross the ocean
Seen a thousand shores
Always searching
For a soul like yours
There's no limit
To the life you bring
Came with nothing
Leave with everything

You give me that
Oh, oh
You give me that sunlight and moonlight
In just one night
You give me that
Oh, oh
You give me that sunlight and moonlight
I know this time

For once in my life I got nothing to lose
I got rips in my jeans, I got holes in my shoes
For once in my life there's a moment of truth
Under the skyline tonight, yeah, I found it with you

Oh, oh
Oh, oh

Cross the ocean
Seen a thousand shores
Always searching
For a soul like yours
There's no limit
To the life you bring
Came with nothing
Leave with everything

Oh, oh
You give me that sunlight and moonlight
In just one night
Oh, oh
You give me that sunlight and moonlight
I know this time

For once in my life I got nothing to lose
I got rips in my jeans, I got holes in my shoes
For once in my life there's a moment of truth
Under the skyline tonight, yeah, I found it with you
For once in my life I got nothing to lose
I got rips in my jeans, I got holes in my shoes
For once in my life there's a moment of truth
Under the skyline tonight, yeah, I found it with you

For once in my life I got nothing to lose
