I was born in a box and taught to be soft
Learn to draw within the lines
Only speak when you're asked, don't shatter the glass
Follow suit and you'll be fine

But can you pay attention?
More than one dimension

I'm a kaleidoscope
Beauty in the chaos, I just ebb and flow
Looking at my aura on the whole rainbow
Count all of my colors, but you'll never know
You'll never know
I'm high and low
You can catch me basking in my afterglow
I'm a queen of falling down a rabbit hole
Count all of my colors, but you'll never know
Kaleidoscope

'Cause I came to find honey and fire
They both glow the same gold light
I never needed to change or add to my strengths
I can break through my design

But can you pay attention?
More than one dimension

I'm a kaleidoscope
Beauty in the chaos, I just ebb and flow
Looking at my aura on the whole rainbow
Count all of my colors, but you'll never know
You'll never know
I'm high and low
You can catch me basking in my afterglow
I'm a queen of falling down a rabbit hole
Count all of my colors, but you'll never know
