

no faker

mxmtoon

I'm alright just being me
Like ticking clocks
These people talk about who I'm supposed to be
I'm still here and incomplete
And it takes all my energy
Just to find out what I need

Oh I ain't got time
No time for all these takers
Say what you want
I'll be my own heartbreaker
Be who I am 'cause I am no, no faker
Yeah, I am no, no faker
Yeah, I am no, no faker

Twenty seconds, twenty years
Just one more year 'til I address all of my fears
It's not too late to turn back now
But if I do, what should I do
I'll probably end up on the ground

I won't let you drag me down

No, I ain't got time
No time for complicators
Say what you want
I'll get there now or later
Be who I am cause I am no, no faker
Yeah, I am no, no faker
Yeah, I am no, no faker

Wasting my days on people who just don't care
Too hard on myself
I had to learn how to be fair
I ain't got room, no room for trouble makers
And you can say what you want
No, I don't need no favors
Be who I am cause I am no, no faker
Yeah, I am no, no faker
Yeah, I am no, no faker
