

please don't mxmtoon

Please don't give up on me.
I know I'm not perfect, but I'm trying.
I said, please don't give up on me.
I know I'm not perfect, but... I'm trying.

You're the only person that I've ever trusted.
Never forcing me to talk until I'm adjusted,
So I
Just wanted to thank you

I know I can be difficult,
I know I can be sad,
But for some reason, you're still here
Standing to my side.

Please don't give up on me.
I know I'm not perfect, but... I'm trying.

You're stuck by my side
And I don't why
But please don't
I don't want you to go

And I know I can difficult and hard to understand
But for reason so far you've stuck around,
So please don't leave now.

It might seem a little selfish
If it is I am so sorry
I just don't feel safe without you
When you're gone it just feels so goddamn dreary

And I wanna be there for you too
I mean that's the least I can do
I'm just working on myself
And I need a little help to make it through

So thank you being here for me
Even if sometimes I disagree
With things you have to say about me
But your honesty is really key

Please don't give up on me.
I know I'm not perfect, but I'm trying.

Please don't give up on me
I am still just learning.
Taking baby steps as I go

Please don't give up on me.
I know I'm not perfect, but... I'm trying.
