

Another Christmas

MxPx

The tree, isn't even even
And now, now it is leanin'
Way down low
And restin' on a few side-wrapped
Presents thrown about the floor

The stockings
Won't stay on the metal
They keep fallin'
I'm beggin' you, please Santa
Can you help us?
Help us through this year

Another Christmas comin' up
Another Christmas passin' by
Another Christmas in my rearview
Another Christmas comin' up
Another Christmas passin' by
Another Christmas that I'll miss you

The bells all have
Been bundled on the table
For months now
If only we were able
To pull our heads out
Our heads out of this dark cloud

It's been years now
Time is slowly healin' all my fears now
The worst already happened
I'm still breathin'
But it still hurts to say hello

Another Christmas comin' up
Another Christmas passin' by
Another Christmas in my rearview
Another Christmas comin' up
Another Christmas passin' by
Another Christmas that I'll miss you

But maybe someday soon
Things will just get better
And maybe someday soon
The good won't take forever
Show up in my life
And not just in my mind

Another Christmas comin' up
Another Christmas passin' by
Another Christmas in my rearview
Another Christmas comin' up
But I won't let it pass me by
Another Christmas that I'll miss you
That I'll miss you
