

Can't Keep Waiting

MxPx

I've been late, I've been last
I've been so wrong in the past
And maybe even right now
I just can't tell you why or how

I've been told, I've been asked
I've been thrown outside like trash
But those were lessons learned
I left no stone unturned

All that I wanted
Was to see you
And to feel the way it used to
I would trade it all to hold you in my arms again

Can't keep waiting
Waiting for what's next
While the world keeps changing
I'm just hoping for the best
With days so strange and
Headlines we never would have guessed
Looking for a way out of this mess
Cause I can't keep waiting
Can't keep waiting for what's next

I've been inside mostly out
Of my mind and what to think about
I think I blocked it out
I just can't tell you why or how

I needed to take some time
Think about what the world has been
Take a look back on this life
And try to start again

Do you remember?
What it felt like?
When you first heard
Did your heart bite?
Out of your chest
Cause of sadness
And we're all still stuck here waiting for happens next

Can't keep waiting
I would have done almost anything to find my way back to you
I would have done almost anything
To change the things that I did to you

Cause all that I wanted
Was to see you
And to feel the way it used to
I would trade it all to hold you in my arms again

Can't keep waiting
Waiting for what's next
While the world keeps changing
I'm just hoping for the best

With days so strange and
Headlines we never would have guessed
Looking for a way out of this mess
Cause I can't keep waiting
Waiting for what's next
