

December

MxPx

It's December 1st and all I want is to stay home
Lately all the bars in town are dead as catacombs
The streets are lined with decorations bringing in the cheer
But maybe if I close my eyes
I'll sleep until next year

Don't wait to long
Don't wait to long to decide your reasons why
You feel nothing

Cause nothing is easy
Nothing is easy
Nothing is easy
Nothing is easy believe me I've tried

It's December 13 and I'm told it's ladies night
Finally I worked up the nerve to go out after light
That's just not my scene so I turned round, walked out the door
Now I'm Christmas shopping at a liquor store

Don't wait to long
Don't wait to long to decide your reasons why
You feel nothing

Cause nothing is easy
Nothing is easy
Nothing is easy
Nothing is easy believe me I've tried
Believe me I've tried

It's good looking out from the inside
Believe me I've tried
