Pipe Dreams

MxPx

Building a skyline, and wondering where my surprise went
The blueprints keep changing, the code keeps on breaking
That must be the intent

Pick all my pockets and take what you need, all you'll find
Just leave me a shred of humanity, leave me my mind

Hold on
Hold on to those pipe dreams
If I'm wrong
The worst is already happening
Hold on, hold on
No reason we can't have pipe dreams

Faced with a nation divided and engaged in reality star wars
Still no indication that we didn't crawl out like rats from the sewers

Pick all my pockets and take what you need, all you'll find
Just leave me a shred of humanity, leave me my mind

Hold on
Hold on to those pipe dreams
If I'm wrong
The worst is already happening
Hold on, hold on
No reason we can't have pipe dreams

Infrastructure and pipeline
Nearly broken supply lines
All my vision is too clear
All this hate it must be fear
Oh yeah
Must be fear

Hold on
Hold on to those pipe dreams
If I'm wrong
The worst is already happening
Hold on
Hold on to those pipe dreams
If I'm wrong
The worst is already happening
Hold on, hold on
No reason we can't have pipe dreams
