

Say Yes

MxPx

Hold my heart and take my hand
Let me in so that you understand
Why I even try
Why I can't say goodbye

Sit right there and I'll explain
Why I find pleasure in the pain
Of losing out
So do you wanna go loud?

And if you say no
It'll be a long ride home
And if you say no
It's gonna be a long drive home alone

Met you here at life's crossroads
Reminds me of an episode
I guess you know
First time we said hello
You turn my world all around
Left is right and lost is found
I can't stand up
For falling down

And if you say no
It'll be a long ride home
And if you say no
It's gonna be a long drive home alone

But if you say yes
I'll wear my best and you can wear that dress
And if you say yes
Just be ready I'll take care of the rest
And if you say yes
This is only the beginning, far from over and done
And if you say yes
I'm saying...

If nothing lasts forever
Then let's do nothing together

And if you say no
It'll be a long ride home
And if you say no
It's gonna be a long drive home alone

But if you say yes
I'll wear my best and you can wear that dress
And if you say yes
Just be ready I'll take care of the rest
And if you say yes
This is only the beginning, far from over and done
And if you say yes
I'm saying I'm the one
