

That's Life

MxPx

The old neighborhood just stayed the same
Now that none of these kids know your name
What we did back in the fourth grade
When we choked down all that sour lemonade

But that's life
You get used to it
That's life
It's hard to admit
When you're wrong
You get used to it
It's hard to admit
That we're losin' it
But that's life

The pain
The will to remain
That's life
The win
The strength to begin
That's life
The time
That moment of truth
When you're faced with a question
That won't let ya loose

I tried goin' places I'd be seen
And when that failed I just did my own thing
Tried to make true sounds break through your speaker screens
I wanted to travel the world, livin' like Steve McQueen

But that's life
You get used to it
That's life
It's hard to admit
When you're wrong
You get used to it
It's hard to admit
That we're losin' it
But that's life

Now that we're old enough to be placin' blame
On loved ones, bosses, politicians, on anything
I didn't think I'd ever have offspring
But years later, I was wrong
But I was right about one thing

That that's life
You get used to it
That's life
It's hard to admit
When you're wrong
You get used to it
It's hard to admit
That we're losin' it
But that's life

The pain
The will to remain
That's life
The win
The strength to begin
That's life
The time
That moment of truth
When you're faced with a question

And that's life
