Something Of An End

My Brightest Diamond

When you came jumping down the stairs Screaming bloody awful You woke up God and everyone Screaming bloody awful

So we took you to the doctor He said yeah it's a bad one And there's such a shame about it 'Cause she's so pretty

And then the earth started shaking And yeah it was crazy Heaven and hell came crashing down And then the earth started shaking Yeah it was crazy Heaven and hell came crashing They came crashing

It was beautiful and terrible So beautiful and terrible

The phone call You never expect That somebody get it yet It's a sound you never forget

Because the earth starts shaking And yeah it's crazy Heaven and hell come crashing down And then the earth starts shaking Yeah it's so crazy Heaven and hell come crashing They come crashing They come cr-cr-crashing

It's so beautiful and terrible So beautiful and terrible

It was something of an end Of a lovely and a wild thing So beautiful in the morning You're beautiful So beautiful You're beautiful in the morning

And I can't seem to get it through your head No matter what I do I can't seem to get it through your head That I always love you
