

Masterplan

My Morning Jacket

I've got a masterplan, babe
I been workin' on it from the start
Pluggin' in all of the numbers
Watchin' it on all of the charts
Just 'cause it starts off slow, babe
Doesn't mean it don't have a heart
You'll be walkin' round showin' off someday
And it'll take you right back to the start, [Incomprehensible]
to the start
It's everything that you want, babe
It's everything that you need
Soft and warm all the time
Make you want it over and over
Strong on the horizon
But it ends up bein' really so sweet
Oh, so sweet
Oh, so sweet
Sometimes I wanna lay down, baby
Sometimes I wanna stand up and fight
Sometimes it runs it's course in a day
Sometimes it goes for night after night
Know that it will start off strong, baby
And it will end up weak in the end
Just like the heart you break of a love, babe
Just like the hand you take of a friend
It's everything that you want babe
It's everything that you need
Soft and warm all the time
Make you want it over and over
Strong on the horizon
But ends up bein' really so sweet
Oh, so sweet
Oh, so sweet
So sweet
