

The First Time

My Morning Jacket

The first time, the first time
The first time, the first time

Well can I say amen?
I never thought, this could happen again
And I hope this feeling lasts
Can tomorrow feel like it did back in the past?
Before we knew it too well
But only time, time will tell
If tomorrow feels like

The first time, the first time
The first time, the first time

We live on learning from the past
And I know those feelings, that never seem to last
But can we put it on again?
And have it feel as special
As it did back then?
When we discovered it...
Before we knew it well?
But only time, time will tell if tomorrow feels like

The first time, the first time, time, yeah time
The first time, the first time
The first time, the first time

Ooh, I wonder where the time went?
Ooh, I wonder where the time went?
Ooh, I wonder where the time went?
Ooh, I wonder where the time went?
Ooh, I wonder where the time went?
Ooh, I wonder where the time went?
Yeah

Ooh, I wonder where the time went?
Ooh, I wonder where the time went?
Ooh, I wonder where the time went?
Ooh, I wonder where the time went?
Yeah
