

Playing It Safe

Myka Relocate

Every single chance that you're given
The choices you make
This is a matter of time at stake
Now I've begun to see
This was never the plan for me

Now it's time for us to start living
I've wasted too much holding back
Should I be selfish or giving?
It's time to put my heart on track

Playing it safe is so wrong
Cause hiding your hope and your love
Is too easy
Burning this bridge for too long
Is turning your back on the life
That you're leading

Every single chance that you're given
The choices you make
This is a matter of time at stake
Now I've begun to see
This was never the plan for me

Your words are fake
And every lie you speak is a disease
This won't fall on me
Keep your realities away

Now you know
Now you know that

Play it safe is so wrong
Cause hiding your hope and your love
Is too easy
Burning this bridge for too long
Is turning your back on the life
That you're leading
Now hold these times to your heart
Cause we are all in this together
Be strong in who you are
These memories will last forever

You'll never see me hopeless
You'll never know what I was meant to be
You can call for bloodshed
You'll never see me bleed
Eah

These clocks don't trust
In what we always try to tell ourselves
You can't weigh down my heart
With the world's woes
This is the life I chose
These words don't brake like the arms you bend
You have a null void to defend

Playing it safe is so wrong
Burning this bridge for too long
Give it your all
Don't get caught up in insecurities
Give your all

Playing it safe is so wrong
Cause hiding your hope and your love
Is too easy
Burning this bridge for too long
Is turning your back on the life
That you're leading
Now hold this time to your heart
Cause we are all in this together
Be strong in who you are
These memories will last forever
Be strong in who you are
These memories will last forever
