

The Plug Won't

Mykki Blanco

Reflecting on the situation since you're acting agitated
I just want a break from all the petty mental masturbation
God, set me straight
Please show me right
Let's bridge this gap
Let's please not fight

You feel so numb, drugs got you gone
Don't fuck my feelings
Yes, I'm really coming home
Off limit topics- pull the cover off, I'm blown
Love lock, link handcuff me bone to bone

Cast away in my thoughts
Daydreaming, scheming
Getting top from a thot
Niggas try to roast me, but they soft apple sauce
Coming at me with them claws
And you don't know what's real because you only fuck with frauds

I'm the truth, I'm a savage
Fuck the world and fuck the baggage
At the plaza when we lavish
The Ramada when we average
The world don't get us
I relinquish my trust
I'm insane for you, baby
Yeah, you got me fucked up

Cause the plug don't love me like you
The drugs don't love me like you
The club don't love me like
Life don't treat me right
I'm so mystified
Why do I need love?
Why do we need love?
Who fucking needs love?
I'm so mystified
Life don't treat me right
(Why do I need love?)

I know I be looking nappy
Yeah, I'm scrappy, but we happy
You possess a lovely fatty, I'mma take it vigilante
Assuming we soulmates, consuming them green grapes
Honeymooning, yeah we cruising down to Cuba with the safe

One minute we so in it
Next minute you're so offended
Can't believe I just defended all the bullshit you was spinning
I hold you special, the fuck is the issue?
I don't see your bestfriend on the text agreeing with you?
I don't see that side of you you're always trying to claim
Talking about you understand, talking at me like a lame

"And weed don't make me feel like this
And lean don't make me feel like this

And weed don't make me feel like this
And lean don't make me feel like"

I'm out of bounds with you
Hate this battleground with you
I don't want the run around
Just wanna wear the crown with you
Fuck the thunderclouds
Yeah, I'm loud and proud with you
We different, believe it
I need you to see it

Cause the plug don't love me like you
The drugs don't love me like you
The club don't love me
Life don't treat me right
I'm so mystified
Why do I need love?
Why do we need love?
Who fucking needs love?
I'm so mystified
Life don't treat me right
