

Love Can Only Heal

Myles Kennedy

In another life
In another place
Maybe you'd have found what brings some to believe
On a different road
In a perfect space
Maybe all the hurt you know would fail to be

Nevermind the pain
'Cause love can only heal
If only you could trade the dark for light it might reveal
That there's a place inside
Don't be afraid to feel
'Cause love can only heal

Did it let you go
When you lost your way
Did it throw you to the wind and watch you break
Does it haunt you now
Are you ever safe
The empty space inside of you can't take

Nevermind the pain
'Cause love can only heal
If only you could trade the dark for light it might reveal
That there's a place inside
Don't be afraid to feel

La la la... love can only heal...

Nevermind the pain
'Cause love can only heal
If only you could trade the dark for light it might reveal
That there's a place inside
'Cause love can only.. heal...

Love, love, love, love

La la la... love...
'Cause love an only heal
La la la... love...
Love can only heal
