

Moonshot

Myles Kennedy

I remember when
We were suiting up again
Before the end of time

We were living in a dream
That never seemed to cease
Never asking why

Over and over again
We took so much for granted
Still, we refuse to give in
To the fate we've been handed

And though it's a moonshot
We can't stop
Until we get back to the start
If it's the last chance
Then take my hand
If there's a miracle left in your heart
It can't be that far

There is joy beyond your tears
Take comfort I am here
Let me show the way

There's no purpose, there's no plan
But I don't care or give a damn
As long as you're ok

Over and over again
We took so much for granted
But still, I refuse to give in
To the fate we've been handed

And though it's a moonshot
We can't stop
Until we get back to the start
If it's the last chance
Then take my hand
It's a matter of time
Just a matter of time, yeah

I remember when
We were suiting up again
Before the end of time

We were living in a dream
That never seemed to cease
Never asking why

And though it's a moonshot
We can't stop
Until we get back to the start
If there's a last chance
Well, then, take my hand

Let it be found
Just let it be found

If there's a last chance
Then take my hand
Just a matter of time
Just a matter of time, yeah, yeah
