

3am

Myles Smith

Walked home alone tonight
Stumbled right past your drive
I almost knocked on your door
But love don't live there no more
I wish that I could love
Say that I've been alright
But deep down, I know you're gone
And I can't help holding on
No, I can't help holding on

I still remember
The way you felt in my arms
Nothing was better
And now we're nothing at all
Called it "Forever"
Now I'm just wishing you'd call
'Cause I'm drunk and it's 3 a.m.
I still remember
Those words you said in my car
Guess those four letters
Never meant nothing at all
Called it "Forever"
Now I'm just wishing you'd call
'Cause I'm drunk and it's 3 a.m.
I wanna see you again

Got to Helvetia Street
Still cold as your memory
No matter what I do
Our rose lead back to you
Yeah, our rose lead back to you

I still remember
The way you felt in my arms
Nothing was better
And now we're nothing at all
Called it "Forever"
Now I'm just wishing you'd call
'Cause I'm drunk and it's 3 a.m.
I still remember
Those words you said in my car
Guess those four letters
Never meant nothing at all
Called it "Forever"
Now I'm just wishing you'd call
'Cause I'm drunk and it's 3 a.m.

I wanna see you again, again
Those three words that I've never said
'Cause I'm drunk and it's 3 a.m.

I still remember
All of the times that we had
We said "Forever"
Sometimes "Forever" don't last
But it's "Whatever"
No point in living in the past

I'm just drunk and it's 3 a.m.
I wanna see you again
