

Someone New

Myles Smith

Said I'm to blame
Said I was broke
Tried everything
Called me a liar, liar, liar
Further I climbed
Harder I'd fall
I hit the ground
Watching you fly, fly, fly

Bet you'd hate to think that that was true
Told me to change or I might miss my chance
But I've got space here for someone new
Someone who loves me for who I am

Sleep for hours
With no regrets
I won't lose myself
If you don't call again
I'm not keeping tabs
On why you left
I just need someone
Who can love me for who I am

Not trying to be
All on my own
I wanna feel
Like I'm alive-live-live
You didn't leave
I let you go
Oh God, it hurt
But I knew that it weren't right

Bet you would hate to think that that was true
Told me to change or I might miss my chance
But I've got space here for someone new
Someone who loves me for who I am

Sleep for hours
With no regrets
I won't lose myself
If you don't call again
I'm not keeping tabs
On why you left
I just need someone
Who can love me for who I am

Someone new
Someone new
Someone new
Someone new
Someone new
Someone new
Someone who loves me for who I am

Sleep for hours
With no regrets
I won't lose myself

If you don't call again
I'm not keeping tabs
On why you left
I just need someone
Who can love me for who I am

Who can love me for who I am
Who can love me for who I am
