Mystery

There were moments I wasn't so sure
And there was someone who came out of the blue You made me feel like flying, and touch the sky you made me see the world with my own eyes when the daylight fades, on a summer day

all i ever wanted
all i ever wanted
was you

you're the air i breathe
watching over me
all i ever wanted
all i ever wanted
was you

you're all i ever wanted
you

We were diving into a brand new life we were turning back the hands of time you kept the fire burning you changed my mind
will you be my saviour
until the end of time

when the daylight fades, on a summer day
all i ever wanted
all i ever wanted
was you

watching over me
all i ever wanted
all i ever wanted
was you

you
you
all i ever wanted
was you
