

Redemption

Mystery

I'm sorry
Did I make you cry?
Forgive me
I've tried with all my might
I'm so sorry
This is just my life

I'd do anything
To see a glimmer of hope

There are shadows
Following me at night
Beat me hollow
Then take me to the light

And I'd give all I have
To see a ray of light

When I saw her
She was there
Standing in the rain
Silver moon shined through her hair
Then she gently reached her hand
Sowing seeds deep my heart
And washed away my pain

This is my Redemption

I'm lonely
Been lonely all my life
So lonely
Will I ever see the light?

Should I be sorry?
Until the end of times
Please forgive me
But I've tried with all my might

I'd give all I have
To see a ray of light

When I saw her
She was there
Standing in the rain
Silver moon shined through her hair
Then she gently reached her hand
Sowing seeds deep my heart
And washed away my pain

This is my Redemption

I'd give all I have and all I had
To see a ray of light
To see a ray of light
And washed away my pain
This is my Redemption

I'm lonely
This is just my life
So lonely
