

February

N-Dubz

Know you're hurting 100%
Sorry for the problems (sorry for the problems)
I never hurt you with intent
Baby can't you hear me calling
All through the morning
I broke her trust and now she always trying to catch me out on FaceTime
Who's all them bitches on your table look like you're having a great time
Waste man

So you pull up to the house unannounced
Now we're shouting in the driveway
Shut the fuck up they can hear us from a mile away
I knew this wouldn't end well from the get go
But it's too late to let it go

I'm an alpha male yo I thought that you would never made me cry
Well you did and you lied (but that's life)
It's been a cold, cold world since you left in February
And now you're just a memory
Guess that's life

Kiss me
You can't be without me can't be with me
When I'm someone else's then you'll miss me
So kiss me
Oh no
You can't be with...

Cool so you think that you're a gyalis does it make you feel important (Make you feel important)
Guilty conscience got you stressing now you think I'm out here whoring
Ima chose to be a bitch when I wanna be
What you want from me
You always love finesse but honesty's the best policy
So who's that brother on your story
Hands all resting on your waistline
Waste man

So I pull up to the house unannounced
Now we're shouting in the driveway
Shut the fuck up they can hear us from a mile away
I knew this wouldn't end well from the get go
But it's too late to let you go

I'm an alpha male yo I thought that you would never make me cry
Well you did when you lied (but that's life)
It's been a cold, cold world since you left in February
And now you're just a memory
Guess that's life

Kiss me
You can't be without me can't be with me
When I'm someone else's then you'll miss me
So kiss me
Oh no
You can't be without me can't be...

We love to fight but out of sight it's out of mind yeah
Always in my dreams but you my nightmare
It's 2am come get this D
I know you miss me
Stop doing the maddest
You're doing the most
Shut up and kiss me

Ah shit I done it again
How many times have I made amends
Board her heart so I bought her a Benz
Couldn't care less she wants revenge
F your friends, F your friends
They don't know love can't listen to them
It's a new day and age, where gal act like man these days

I'm an alpha male yo I thought that you would never make me cry
Well you did when you lied (but that's life)
It's been a cold, cold world since you left in February
And now you're just a memory
Guess that's life

Kiss me
You can't be without me can't be with me
When I'm someone else's then you'll miss me
So kiss me
Oh no
Hey

I'm an alpha male yo I thought that you would never make me cry
Well you did when you lied (but that's life)
It's been a cold, cold world since you left in February
And now you're just a memory
Guess that's life
