

Real

N-Dubz

Ha-ha
Na-na-nai, yeah

Two two's mama, you're my type
The only one I need in my life
So cold outside
You're all I need to keep me warm up in the nighttime
Real to the end, I'll pretend
Tell you how it is, I'll be your lover and your friend
I'll be up late again and again
For when you disrespect, forget the time that we spent

Go to battle by your side
Do or die, I'm down to ride
I'm out tryna make a killing
But you got me in my feelings
All you really got is lies?

Don't waste time, first time
I had you wet before I looked in those eyes
Don't try
I had the best time, next time you let me in it
I'ma make sure it's all mine when I hit it

As soon as you leave, I need you
And I sure know why
And you're looking fine
Drop all my pride, yeah
You know you're my best friend
I learned all my lessons

If you lied, I'd see straight through
We all know you'll be done out here
Yeah, we all know I'll be done out here
And no one likes gettin' stung out here (Brr)

Two two's mama, you're my type (True)
The only one I need in my life (Life)
So cold outside (So cold)
You're all I need to keep me warm up in the nighttime
Real to the end, I'll pretend

Yo, she a proper one, I couldn't leave her with a burn
I stayed killin' her (Ah)
That's why I'd get away with murder
Respectively, where is the respect for me?
Cah if I turn this 'round it's fuck you, respectfully

Yeah, this wood is good, better make 'em cry
If I tell him, "Bye, you was mine," are you on the side?
Stressin' 'bout your pride (Your pride)
And she don't want the best for me
She want a child now
She says it's our destiny

As soon as you leave, I need you
And I sure know why
And you're looking fine
Drop all my pride, yeah
You know you're my best friend
I learned all my lessons

If you lied, I'd see straight through
We all know you'll be done out here
